by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 2-2-127, is amended by deleting the period and by adding the following new language:

; provided, however, a registrar shall make a reasonable effort to redact a person's social security number from a record before such record is made available to any person other than the holder of the number if such record is stored in a computer readable format on the effective date of this act. When such records are first stored in computer readable format or when changes are made to any computer program that stores or accesses records, a registrar shall redact a person's social security number from a record before such record is made available to any person other than the holder of the number.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 2-2-127, is amended by designating the existing language as amended as subsection (a) and by adding the following new subsection:

(b) Nothing in the preceding subsection may be construed to prohibit an agency of a state, county, or municipal office from using a person's social security number for internal purposes or to prohibit a county election commission and its staff from using a person's social security number for enforcement of the election law as provided in this title, and nothing in the preceding subsection shall be construed to limit the public's access to that record.
